Vigilants Handed Setback by Clarendon—Cardinals Defeat Fast Rex Team.

TWO NINES UNDEFEATED

The local followers of the independent amateur baseball game were treated to a big day yesterday on the sandlots in this vicinity, as a great number of games were played. In the fight among the first class teams for the District champion-class teams for the District champion-ship there remain but two teams that stood the test of being undefeated. The Alexandria County Athletic As-sociation team, of Clarendon, Va., and the Mohawk Athletic Club are the only teams in the independent ranks that have come through the spring schedule to date without having a defeat regis-tered against them.

to date without having a defeat registered against them.

Bill Malone's crack Clarendon nine, put over the biggest victory of the day when it captured an interesting sluggest from the crack Vigilant Athletic Club team by a 10-to-8 score. Bolen, King, Stewart and Weaver, proved big factors in the Virginians victory over the Big "Vs."

With "Finney" Kelly doing the mound duties the Mohawks had an easy time handing a set-back to the Lincoln Athletic Club, on the Hilltop field yesterday, the southeast clubmen pounding

BOEHLING TO OPPOSE COVELESKI OF TIGERS

Manager Griffith stated last night he would work either Boehling or Doe. Ayers in the second game of the series with the Tigers today. When the southpaw thunderbolt is right, the Jennings' Tigers are easy pickings. On the other hand, Avers has siways been successagainst the Jungaleers.

Manager Hughie Jennings said last night that he would work Harry Coveleski, his big lefthander, in today's game, as he was confident that he could trim the Nationals.

It is expected that Pitcher Dauss will report to Manager Jennings this afternoon, as he was reported to be in shape to most likely work in one of the games during the series.
